Maryland vs. Florida State
May 4-6, 2001

Terps Host No. 16 Florida State In The Final Home ACC Series Of The Year

The ACC-leading Florida State Seminoles, ranked No. 16 in the latest Baseball America Top 25, visit College Park this weekend in the final ACC series of the year for the Terps. Maryland enters with a record of 15-31 and a 4-16 mark in the conference. The Seminoles (35-14, 15-3 ACC) have had the week off since dropping two-of-three at Georgia Tech last weekend. The FSU series is the final home series of the season for the Terps and the final weekend homestand for five seniors. The senior class will be honored Sunday on Senior Day in the series finale against the 'Noles. All three games will be carried by WMUC (88.1 FM), the Maryland student radio station, and can be followed live at www.umterps.com.

Diamond Notes: Florida St.

John-Ford Griffin leads the Seminoles into town this weekend with a conference-leading .447 batting average. The All-America candidate leads the team in hits (80), home runs (13) and runs batted in (53). On the hill, the Seminoles will send RHP Blair Varnes (6-1, 3.75) to the mound on Friday, LHP Matt Lynch (6-2, 3.21 ERA) Saturday and RHP Robby Read (6-4, 3.77 ERA) on Sunday.

The Series With The Noles

The Terrapins trail the all-time series, 30-3. The last Maryland win came on March 26, 1998 when the Terps won 14-6 in Tallahassee. It has been eight years since the Terps defeated FSU in College Park. The last time Maryland won at home over FSU was a 5-2 decision on May 2, 1993.

Updating The Record Books

Steve Oursler (Clinton, Md.) and Brian Patenaude (Marietta, Ga.), have been quickly moving up the career hitting charts for the Terrapins. Patenaude is ranked in nine hitting categories including at-bats (631, 4th), runs (140, 4th), hits (198, 5th), doubles (46, T-1st), extra-base hits (61, 8th), walks (87, 5th), total bases (285, 6th), sacrifice hits (17, 4th) and hit by pitch (25, 2nd). Easter will also leave his name on several of the Top 10 career charts. The Baltimore native is tied for first in doubles (46), third in walks (90) and third in being hit by a pitch (24).

Brian Patenaude

Oursler has played just two seasons in College Park after transferring from St. Mary's. Oursler has 35 doubles as a Terrapin, ninth-best in school history. His .341 batting average also places him 10th on the all-time career chart.

Last Time Out: Towson 7, Maryland 6

Maryland reliever Mike Dallmeyer (Enola, Pa.) tossed a career-high 7.2 innings and held Towson to three hits but it was not enough as the Terps fell to the Tigers, 7-6, in 11 innings Wednesday night at Shipley Field. Dallmeyer was fantastic, as he allowed just one earned run and fanned four, but the run was the game-winning home run off the bat of Ryan Avila.

With the win, Towson improves to 28-17 while the Terrapins fall to 15-31.

The Terrapins got out to an early 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first. After leading off the first with a single, senior designated hitter Brian Patenaude later scored to give Maryland a 1-0 advantage.

Towson responded with two runs in the top of the second to take a 2-1 lead. Catcher Casey Stidham drove in a run with a sacrifice fly and shortstop Brian McKenna delivered a RBI single to left to plate the Tigers' second run.

Steve Oursler

The Terrapins scored a run in the home half of the second to tie the contest at two. In the Maryland third, senior third baseman Steve Oursler launched a solo home run to left to put the Terps back on top at 3-2.

The seesaw affair continued in the Towson fourth as the Tigers scored three runs to regain the lead. Stidham knocked in his second run of the game with a single to center and Mike Costello hit his seventh homer of the season, a two-run shot to right center, to make the score 5-3 Towson.

Freshman second baseman Jeremy Suarez (Lakewood, NJ.) brought the Terps to within one in the bottom of the sixth with a RBI single to right to cut the Tiger lead to 5-4. Oursler (3-for-4, 3 RBIs) then gave the Terps the lead in the seventh with his second homer on the night, a two-run shot, to put Maryland ahead 6-5. The two-home run game for Oursler was the first of his career and the third by a Maryland player this season.

The Maryland lead was short-lived as Towson scored an unearned run in the eighth to tie the contest at six. Pinch runner Curtis Lester scored on a passed ball by Maryland catcher Preston Taylor (College Park, Md.) for the Towson equalizer.

The game remained deadlocked until the 11th inning when Avila drilled his fourth homer of the year for the game-winning run. Towson reliever Jason Summerlin pitched a perfect 11th to record his second save.

Jason Walter earned the victory for Towson. Walter (2-1) allowed just one hit in three innings to earn his second win. Dallmeyer was the tough-luck loser for the Terps and is 0-5 on the year.

Wear It!

If there is one thing about Chuck Easter, he will always take one for the team. The Baltimore native has been plunked 14 times this season, the second-highest total ever in one season. Easter trails Chris Cannan who was nailed 21 times during the 1994 season.

Easter has also moved quickly up the career charts also. The 24 times he has been hit over his years in College Park rank him third on the all-time list.

Senior outfielder Brian Patenaude has been struck seven times this season to move into second-place on the career list with 25. Cannan is the all-time leader after getting nailed by 36 pitches over his career.

Going The Distance

Steve Schmoll (Rockville, Md.) turned in the best pitching performance of his brief career Saturday against Wake. The second-year hurler tossed his first complete game to down the Deacs, 9-4. Schmoll allowed just one earned run and fanned five to upset No. 21 Wake.

Steve Schmoll

Earlier in the season, Schmoll set a career-high with 10 strikeouts vs. Georgetown.

Overall, he leads the pitching staff with 52 strikeouts. Schmoll has pitched in 63.2 innings this season, second-best on the team.

The ACC Tourney Returns To Charlotte

The 2001 ACC Baseball Tournament returns to Charlotte and Knights Stadium May 15-20. The five-day tournament is styled after the College World Series and follows a double-elimination format. For ticket information, contact the Charlotte Knights ticket office at 704-36-HOMER.

Getting Hot At The Right Time

Sean Lomas (Brewster, N.Y.) has been on fire at the plate for the Terps over the past two weeks. Currently on a seven-game hitting streak, Lomas is hitting .400 (10-25) with 6 runs scored and four doubles.

The New York native leads the team with 29 walks and ranks second with 14 doubles. For the season, Lomas is batting .316, fifth-best on the club.
